

Return Assistance Act (November 28, 1983)

Abstract

The Act to Promote the Willingness of Foreigners to Return, or Return Assistance Act for short, offered unemployed foreigners a “welfare payment” (Norbert Blüm) to move back to their countries of origin: 10,500 DM plus 1,500 DM per child. In addition to this return bonus, interested persons received counseling on reintegration into the labor market of their respective countries of origin. There is still an entitlement to such counseling services.

Article 1

Return assistance law (RückHG)

Persons eligible

(1) Return assistance can be claimed by employees who

1. are not married to a German and are citizens of a state that has concluded an agreement with the Federal Republic regarding recruitment and employment of employees and is not a member of the European Community.

a) became unemployed after October 30, 1983 and before June 30, 1984, because of shut-down of the entire business or significant portions of the business, or because of bankruptcy, and were reported as unemployed until outside the area of validity of the law, or

b) had an uninterrupted claim to the short-term work benefit for lost working hours within the last six months before the application for return assistance, those lost hours encompassing at least twenty of a hundred of the business’s work hours as defined in §69 of the Employment Promotion Act.

2. Submitted an application for return assistance by June 30, 1984.

3. At the time point of exit, possessed a valid residency permit or right of residence.

In cases of Subsection (1), Number 2 [sic – 1], Letter b, an interruption in the receipt of the short-term work benefit according to § 67, Subsection 3 of the Employment Promotion Act is to be left out of consideration.

(2) Return assistance shall only be paid for employees who have permanently left the area of validity of this law with their families in the period after October 30, 1983, and before September 30, 1984. The family includes the spouse and children for whom the employee is legally obligated to pay maintenance and entitled to custody. That does not apply to a spouse living separately who has already been residing lawfully in the area of validity of this law for five years and has available an independent guaranty of subsistence.

Amount of Return Assistance

(1) The return assistance amounts to DM 10,500. The amount is to be increased by DM 1,500 for each child of the employee who resides lawfully in the area of validity of this law, returns with him, and entered before June 1, 1983. This supplement shall only be granted for a child one time.

(2) If the employee does not leave the area of validity of this law until after January 1, 1984, and later than one month after the conditions cited in § 1, Subsection (1), Number 2 have been met, the amount of DM 10,500 shall be reduced by DM 1,500 for every further month started in the case of § 1, Subsection (1), Number 2, Letter a, and by DM 750 in the case of § 1, Subsection (1), Number 2, Letter b. After the passage of seven months the return assistance benefit shall no longer be paid.

Commissioning of the Federal Employment Office

Return assistance shall be granted by the Federal Employment Office according to technical instructions from the Federal Ministry for Labor and Social Affairs.

Funding by the Federal Government

The expenditures of the Federal Employment Office shall be covered by the Federal Government. Administrative costs shall not be reimbursed.

Procedures

Return assistance shall be applied for in writing at the employment office. The employment office in whose district the employee has his residence before leaving the area of validity of this law is responsible for taking receipt of the application and making the decision about the claim. Upon request for a provisional decision, the employment office can decide about qualifying conditions. Otherwise, the provisions of the First Chapter of the Tenth Book of the Social Security Code (Article 1 of the Law of August 18, 1980, Federal Law Gazette I, p. 1469, 2218) apply.

§8 [sic – 6]

Certification of Employers

The employer shall certify all the facts that can be significant according to § 1, Subsection (1), No. 2 [sic – 1], Letters a and b for the decision regarding the claim for return assistance, as well as the number of children entered on the employee's income tax card. For this purpose, [the employer] is required to use the preprinted form provided by the Federal Employment Office. The certification is to be turned over to the employee for his application for return assistance.

Advising

(1) On request, aliens willing to return shall be instructed and advised about general return conditions and about the opportunities for professional integration, including establishment of an independent existence in their homelands.

(2) Advising shall be performed by the Federal Employment Office according to technical instructions of the Federal Ministry for Labor and Social Affairs.

(3) The costs arising from advising in order to train and provide information to advisors, as well as the costs of coordination shall be defrayed by the Federal Government.
